California Farmer Russia Tour Ends

Steinberg Says Soviets Need Incentives to Boost Output

MOSCOW (UPI) — A group of 48 California farmers returned today from a tour of Soviet agricultural facilities that included a feast on a dish called "last cry of the chicken."

Georgians Appeal to Kennedy

DAWSON, Ga. (UPI)—Desegregation leaders have called on President Kennedy "to stop the Nazi-like reign of terror in south-west Georgia."

Two Negro churches were destroyed by fire Sunday and a white man attacked an FBI agent investigating the blazes.

Arrested for striking a federal officer was Virgil E. Puckett, 58. He was scheduled to be arraigned today before the U.S. commissioner at nearby Albany, scene of mass arrests and racial demonstrations since December.

Since desegregation activities were stepped up here last month, three Negro churches have been burned down, four Negro homes have been fired on and a white youth working in a Negro voter registration drive has been shot and wounded.

Scene of Meetings
Negro voter registration meetings had been held in one of the churches which burned Sunday. A minister and a deacon in the other church have been active in the vote drive.

Terrell County Sheriff Z. T. Matthews said he did not think efforts to register Negroes to vote had anything to do with the church burnings.

Matthews said the whites "don't like the mingling" of white and Negro members of the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), the group which spearheaded the registration efforts.

The sheriff said white youths and girls were living in Negro homes here while working with SNCC.

Issues Denial
However, Prathia Hall, 22-year-old Negro coed from Temple University, said there were no white girls with SNCC in this area. "We may have had visits from white girls at our headquarters," she said, "but none are staying here."

Mrs. Lucy B. Mallory, 52, a Negro who lives near the Mount Olive Baptist Church, said she saw the church on fire from her window at about 2 a.m.

Mrs. Mallory said she awakened her husband but he was unable to put out the blaze. "I didn't sleep a wink after that," she said. "I am scared to death."

A short time later fire broke out at the Mount Mary Baptist Church.

Special Fares
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Trans World Airlines has asked the Civil Aeronautics Board to approve a special Christmas holiday fare for American military personnel and dependents stationed overseas.

The fare, about 51 per cent under regular rates, would apply under regular rates, would apply from points in Europe to New York, Boston, Baltimore, Washington, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Philadelphia.

Red Chinese Accuse U.S. In New U2 Plane Incident

NEW STUDENTS filled the Palm Springs High School library this morning in registration for students new to the district. A total of 245 students, a surprising increase over what was expected, showed up to join the district.

Peiping Ignores National China Responsibility

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — Nationalist China today assumed full responsibility for the flight of an American-made U2 plane which the Communists claim to have shot down over the China mainland.

Peiping practically ignored Taipei and laid the whole blame on the United States. It loosed a propaganda barrage that blistered U.S. policies on Cuba, Berlin, Southeast Asia and other trouble spots around the world.

Peiping Radio said the plane was shot down Sunday over south-east China by "an air force unit." It gave no further details and did not disclose the pilot's fate. Nationalist Chinese officials said intelligence experts were trying to learn just what happened—whether the extremely high altitude plane was forced down to lower altitudes by engine trouble or whether the Chinese Reds possibly had used Soviet ground-to-air missiles to knock it down.

Tells Of Missiles
A Chinese Communist pilot, Liu Chen, who defected to the Nationalists last March, said he had learned before leaving the mainland that Peiping had received ground-to-air missiles from the Russians.

Officials in Taipei and Washington disclosed for the first time that Nationalist China had bought two U2 planes from the Lockheed Aircraft Corp. in July, 1960.

A State Department official in Washington said so far as he knew no restrictions had been imposed at that time as to how and where the Nationalists might use the planes.

A Nationalist spokesman said the planes arrived in December, 1960, and had been making successful flights over Communist China ever since.

Absolves U.S.
Government spokesman James Shen, confirming that one of the two planes was missing, said it was owned and operated entirely by Nationalist China. It was "strictly a Chinese operation," he said.

But Peiping linked the flight with the current Far East tour of Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, who is to become chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, the American "failure" in Laos and other cold war issues.

"The intrusion of the U2 plane of the Chiang Kai-shek gang was by no means an isolated incident," the Peiping People's Daily proclaimed.

"It was an integral part of the stepped-up spying activities against the socialist countries carried out by U.S. U2 planes, mostly based in Japan."

Damage to Brain of Spy Told

LONDON (UPI) — Hillingdon Hospital reported today that fugitive spy Dr. Robert Soblen had made some progress toward consciousness but continued to suffer "frequent" convulsions.

The hospital issued its bulletin as the 61-year-old psychiatrist completed four full days in a coma as a result of swallowing an overdose of barbiturates last Thursday to block his deportation to the United States.

"Dr. Soblen is less deeply comatized than he was, but he is still unconscious," the bulletin stated. "The convulsions continue to occur frequently and now constitute the main cause for anxiety."

The convulsions, which could indicate brain damage from the prolonged blackout, began Sunday. A hospital spokesman said earlier that doctors had been able to control them "to some extent."

Soblen's wife, Dina, spent the night in a private room the hospital provided for her. She stayed in the room of her unconscious husband most of Sunday.

Soblen, 61, took the overdose of barbiturates just before he was to be put on a plane for the United States where he is wanted to start serving a life sentence for spying for Russia in wartime.

NFO Slaps Back At Processors

CHICAGO (UPI) — A militant farm group, rebelling against low meat prices, NFO "minute men" and food industry officials closely watched the markets to assess the effects of the "hold," aimed at forcing buyers and processors to sign contracts guaranteeing stable, higher prices for farm products.

Oren Lee Staley, president of the fledgling farm group, said at NFO headquarters in Corning, Iowa, that "big companies" were responsible for "abrupt increases" in meat prices.

"The higher prices the housewife is being asked to pay are unjustified and uncalled for," the 39-year-old Staley said. "It's a case of the middleman taking advantage of the consumer."

Staley, of Rea, Mo., declined to identify the "big companies" but gave their names to the Justice Department and to House and Senate investigating committees.

The NFO holding action began Aug. 31, but the first big test came last week in the usually heavy marketing period following a Labor Day weekend.

At week's end, beef prices were at the highest level in months and hog prices were higher than at any time in the past four years on some of the 12 major Corn Belt markets.

However, both Staley and market experts predicted the real test of the market "boycott" may come this week, when NFO members and outside supporters will be tempted to ship their livestock while prices are high.

The NFO, with an undisclosed number of members in 16 states from Pennsylvania to Idaho, was organized in Corning seven years ago and has staged several "test" holds, which market experts claimed had little effect on prices.

Tomorrow's regularly scheduled meeting of the Desert Water Agency board of directors will be adjourned to Friday, according to Herbert Samson, board chairman.

Samson said a quorum is not expected to be available Tuesday and the session will be set back to 8 a.m. Friday in the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce office at 190 W. Amado.

Enrollment Peak Seen In Schools

It was "an open and shut" situation in Palm Springs today.

The school system opened to the vanguard of an anticipated enrollment of 4,160 pupils — kindergarten through high school.

Our banks, city and county offices and insurance firms were closed to mark Admission Day, a September day 112 years ago when the State of California was admitted to the union — the 31st of the 50 stars now in the flag.

Early reports indicated the 4,100 plus estimate on enrollments may be a bit on the light side.

At Palm Springs High School, for example, Paul Summit, director of special services, reported 151 enrollees new to the district.

"These pupils have not been programmed yet and it's likely that about a fourth of them will drop out, but this is an unusually high number of newcomers," Summit said.

In the elementary grades, kindergarten through eighth, 94 new students enrolled, bringing the total to 295 the number of students topping last year's opening day.

CAMPAIGN SWING

Gov. Brown Confident of Victory

ANAHEIM (UPI)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown opened a two-day campaign swing of Southern California today with a prediction he would be re-elected in November because his Republican opponent's battle cry has been "status quo."

Brown told an Orange County Democratic luncheon that Richard M. Nixon and he differ on the basic part government should play in the development of California and for that reason the people will support the present administration.

His address came on the heels of a four-day tour through Northern California.

"He (Nixon) believes government should stand aside, let the

New York Stocks at Closing

Du Pont regained its early loss to show a gain of about 1/4 in an otherwise irregularly lower chemical group. Chrysler rose 1/2 in the afternoon after being off as much as 1 1/2 earlier in the session.

Bethlehem and National were among steel losers. In the oils, Amerasia tacked on nearly 1 1/2 but Barber and Kern County slipped 1 or more.

Six Went Down to the Sea In Ships and Suffered It

SALTON SEA — Men went down to the Salton sea in ships with a gurgling over the weekend, Indio sheriff's officers reported today.

Three San Bernardino men—Arthur Mortigo, 31, John Diaz and Sammy Diaz, were found cooled but unharmed on Desert Beach at 11:30 p.m. Saturday after they walked and swam back from a boat ride.

The boat, Salton Sea Ranger John Hansen had reported scant minutes earlier to sheriff's officers, quietly sank 200 yards off shore as the trio made futile efforts to beach the craft.

Earlier in the weekend, an Indio quartet was rescued by sheriff's officers from a floating powerless fishing boat.

Jesse Hernandez, George Ortega, 20, Manuel Aguilar and Rod Cantana, 16, all of the Indio labor camp, were retrieved from a drifting boat three miles off the Salt Creek shore after they were spotted by plane at 10 a.m. Saturday.

None of the young fishermen suffered injury or exposure, sheriff's deputies reported.

September's the Time for Better Breakfasts

September has been designated any lazy habits that may have crept in during the hot, hot days of summer. This year has seen the arrival of many exotic cook books and the emergence of exciting new foods, but it has also seen the wide acceptance of the calm and satisfying "prudent breakfast" — the moderate low-fat adequate breakfast pattern.

Naturally, home economists at the Cereal Institute believe that breakfast should include a serving of cereal and milk, and, in general, nutritionists agree; even breakfast cereal and milk for decid-reducing diets offer daily por-ades might have a better appetite. But variety is the keyword; imagination and their particular homemakers are urged to do something with the cereal, hot or cold, rather than just pouring it into a bowl, and, perhaps, addit is made available to them. The same goes for the small fry, too. Try them with a high protein cereal, stewed prunes, and vanilla pudding; or the same cereal served with fruit salad. The suggestion is also made that instead of using fruit ON cereal, serve the cereal OVER fruit — as the recipe be-

ROLLED OATS and sugar make a crumbly crown for applesauce that is lightly spiced and fragrant for the more generous breakfasts of autumn.

Mix Cereals and Fruit in New Ways To Whet Appetite

Crumbly Cereal Good as Topping For Applesauce

Autumn in the desert doesn't necessarily mean cool snappy mornings with a touch of frost on the pumpkin, but the lessening of summer's heat does give rise to heartier appetites.

So if anyone in the family has been skipping on breakfast, now is the time for appetite-creating main dishes. The youngest school child as well as the oldest in the family will come to the breakfast table sharp with expectancy when a good hot dish calls them.

This recipe for Crumbly Cereal-Topped Applesauce is sure proof that an attractive dish can be nutritious. You can count on rolled oats and other breakfast cereals to bring protein and their valuable B vitamins, riboflavin, thiamine, and niacin, as well as essential minerals to any breakfast. So try this unusual goody to get the day off to a flying start.

Crumbly Cereal-Topped Applesauce
3 cups thick canned applesauce
1 tsp. ground coriander
1/4 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 tbs. lemon juice
1/2 cups rolled oats
3/4 cup brown sugar, packed
1-3 cup flour
1/4 tsp. salt
1/2 cup butter or margarine

Combine applesauce, coriander, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon, and lemon juice. Pour into 1 1/2-quart casserole. Pour into 1 1/2-quart casserole. Combine oats, brown sugar, flour, the remaining cinnamon, and salt. Cut in butter or margarine until mixture is crumbly. using knives or pastry blender. Sprinkle mixture over applesauce. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) until browned and bubbly, about 40 minutes. Serve warm or cold, with milk, cream, or ice cream as desired. Serves 6.

COLORFUL TOWER

Waldorf Salad Dramatized

The world-famous Waldorf Salad now is found in as many versions as there are cooks, but the original combination of sweet and tangy apple chunks, rich, crunchy walnut bits, crisp and cool celery strips remains the flavorful basis for this family-favorite salad. This modern interpretation, catches basic ingredients in a handsome molded tower of gelatin, fluffed with whipped cream and mayonnaise. Bright bits of Washington State Red Delicious or Winesap apples peek through the gelatin to create a "show-piece" salad for luncheon, dinner, or buffet serving.

Cottage Cheese Mold Delicious

Give your meals new appetite appeal with your own distinctive touch.

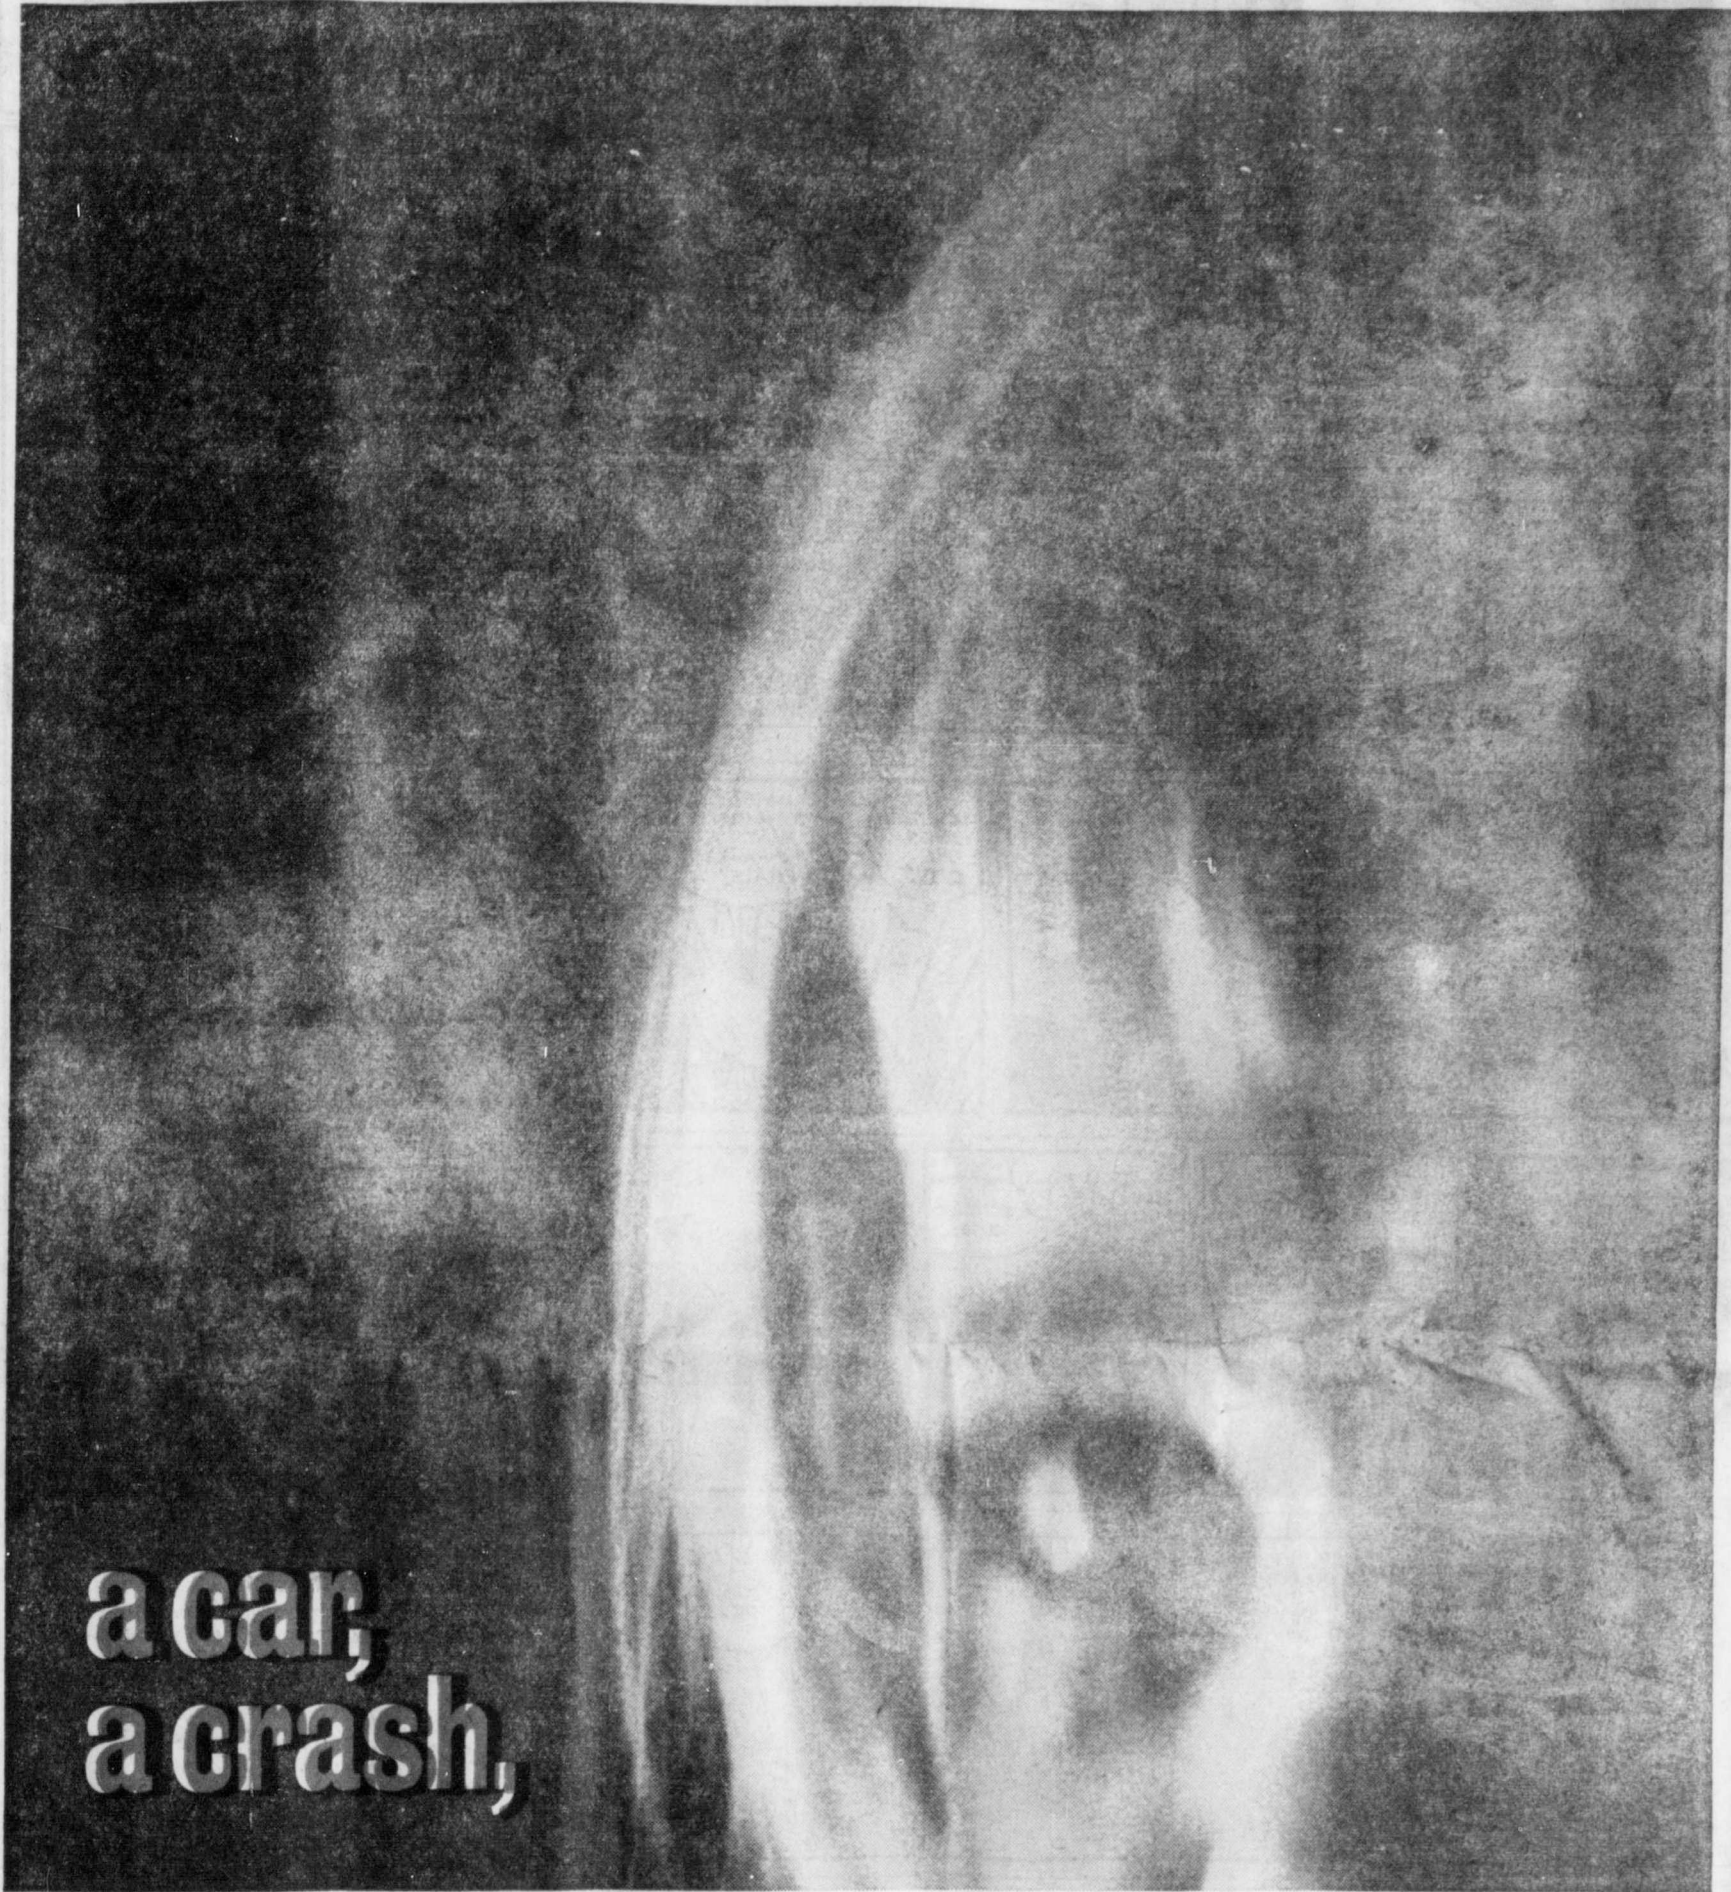

There's special flavor and special nutrition in calorie-slim foods prepared with cottage cheese and sour cream which you can vary to your own taste. Here is a winning combination and a wonderful way to add variety to your meals.

1 pkg. lime-flavored gelatin
1 1/2 cups hot water
1 tbs. lemon juice
1 cup cottage cheese
1 cup sour cream
1 cup sliced peaches
Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Cool. Add lemon juice, chill until syrupy. Blend cheese in gently, and chill in 9" ring mold until firm. Unmold on a bed of crisp greens and fill center with sour cream. Garnish with fresh or canned peaches.

Jellied Waldorf Mousse
1 pkg. lemon-flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 cup diced celery
1 1/2 cups diced, unpeeled Washington Red Delicious or Winesap apples
1/2 cup chopped nuts

and in one tragic second Judy became an orphan.

There are many ways it could have happened—a plane wreck, a fire, a boat accident. But Judy's parents were killed in an auto crash. "It was the other guy's fault"—but that didn't make any difference to Judy. She was suddenly alone, as alone as a child can be. Who would buy those pretty dresses for her now? Who would finance her college education? And your children: How have you prepared for them?

A NEW PLAN OF PROTECTION

Relatives, charity, government relief agencies helped Judy. But you can provide your children with their own money to live on, to grow on, by joining a new plan now offered by the Fireman's Fund Insurance Companies—one of the nation's oldest, largest insurance groups. THE PLAN: Orphans' Security Fund. THE PROTECTION: $100,000 in cash to your surviving minor children should both parents meet accidental death together, or in separate accidents occurring within 24 hours. The full $100,000 would be paid if death occurs within 120 days after the accident. All types of accidental deaths are covered, even deaths from air accidents, as long as neither parent is pilot or crew-member of the aircraft in flight at the time of the accident. Naturally, deaths resulting from acts of war or suicide are not covered. THE COST: $10 a year.

ONE POLICY COVERS ALL YOUR CHILDREN

The $100,000—which would have the same tax advantages as life insurance—would be distributed equally among all your minor, dependent children. An only child would receive the entire amount. Fireman's Fund would even pay an extra $1,000 to find any eligible children who might be missing. The $100,000 would be paid in addition to any other estate or insurance benefits your children might receive. The only limitation is one Orphans' Security Fund policy per family. (Policy reference A&H 274.)

ENROLL NOW—BEFORE THE CLOSING DATE

You can give your children this unique protection by mailing the coupon with your check for $10, payable to Fireman's Fund. Send it to the address below—but do it now—before the closing date. You will receive your policy by mail, but please allow four weeks for delivery. Your policy will be serviced by one of the independent agents participating in this program. You may also enroll by giving your coupon with $10 to any agent of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Companies or any licensed insurance broker.

MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE

Standing behind your policy are the Fireman's Fund Insurance Companies with assets exceeding half-a-billion dollars, and represented by 16,500 agents coast-to-coast. You'll find your policy easy to understand. If you are not completely satisfied, return it within 10 days and your $10 will be refunded. We believe, however, you'll agree that $10 a year is a small price to pay for this important protection for your children.

Unique Plan Pays Big To Orphans

Riverside and San Bernardino counties have been selected as a special test area where a unique insurance plan — Orphans' Security Fund — is now being introduced by The Fireman's Fund Companies, the largest casualty-surety group in the nation with headquarters in San Francisco.

Announcing the test, President Fred H. Merrill said the policy will provide a $100,000 cash estate for surviving, minor children of parents who perish together in the same accident, or different accidents occurring within 24 hours. The full $100,000 would be paid if death occurs within 120 days after the accident, he stated. The cost of the policy is $10 a year, and details of the new plan are outlined in ads now appearing in newspapers throughout the area.

Merrill explained that a child who loses both his parents is often financially handicapped for life and that this new protection would assure ready cash for the child's livelihood and education. Riverside and San Bernardino counties were chosen as a test area because of the huge concentration of young, growing families. Fireman's Fund Insurance Companies are also providing help for other segments of California's population including hospital-surgical insurance for Californians aged 65 or older.

Under Orphans' Security Fund, nearly all types of accidental deaths are covered, including those resulting from airplane crashes, automobile accidents, fires and drownings. Should more than one child survive, the $100,000 would be divided equally among them and the money would be paid in addition to any other estate or insurance benefits which the children of the insured would inherit. The proceeds from the Orphans' Security Fund would enjoy the same tax advantages as life insurance.

At Least, We Do Not Have to Guess

Where do we go from here?

The muddled situation in the congressional race in the 38th district comprising Riverside and Imperial Counties has not cleared up much, although some of the guess work was removed by the statement Friday of D. S. Saund, incumbent representative and a candidate for re-election.

But when all of the partisan, political gobbledegook is stripped from the local congressional seat situation, these facts remain:

—Congressman Saund suffered a stroke, his second, four months ago.

—Definite statements from his office not only on his condition but on the very nature of his illness have been withheld from his constituency.

—Only after four months of silence do we learn that Saund will not be able, physically, to campaign for re-election but that he is still a candidate.

We have said before and say again that if it was not beneath the dignity of Presidents Wilson, Roosevelt, Truman, Eisenhower and Kennedy to report to the public on their condition and progress at the time of illness, it should not demean our Congressman.

In fact, the outpourings under government franked free mailing on everything from how to raise soy beans to advice to the newly wed, have not decreased during Saund's illness. Only the most pertinent news of all was withheld.

The five presidents mentioned above believed they owed their constituents a full report on their condition. Saund apparently did not.

The present statement that Saund will be glad to serve but will be unable to conduct a campaign, raises an interesting point. Is campaigning or serving the most important function of a public servant? In the present case you might as well ask which is the most demanding of the time and thoughts of our incumbent.

And you might also ask, which is the more rigorous, seeking re-election or efficiently handling all of the problems and time and energy-consuming performance of duties? Saund's backers may, and probably will, classify the attacks on his tenure of office as attacks on a sick man — hitting a man when he is down.

But it most definitely is not. The vast interests of the 38th district, Riverside and Imperial Counties, come first.

The situation is still muddled but at least we know where Mr. Saund stands.

It's Back to School Today

The first day of school—an important day in the lives of many adults as well as those of the school age.

It's a day of mixed emotions for parents, teachers and the kids.

It's a day for the usual warnings, the viewing with alarm by those concerned with the safety of the school children or with the progress of education.

It's a day of responsibility for the teachers who must see to it that education is given a fair chance, the day they start to instill knowledge into young minds, some willing and receptive, some unwilling and antagonistic. It's a day of responsibility for parents, too, who should co-operate with school staffs and not merely dismiss the occasion with a sigh of relief because, from early morning to mid-afternoon at least, there will be a strange quietude around the house.

It is also a day for those adults to whom school days are of no concern and only a memory of the past. They have a big responsibility, too. The traffic pattern changes drastically. Those yellow school busses, absent from the streets since June, will be back. Their flashing red lights painted on the pavements and School Zone signs.

Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann and his staff, are determined to maintain the excellent safety record established in school traffic safety in Palm Springs. Their warnings have been issued and are not to be disregarded. Summer driving habits undergo a change today.

Motorists will do well to remember that, in the exuberance and enthusiasm of youth, the child is apt to forget the safety lessons. So it is up to the motorist to think not only for himself but for the child.

This day is a happy one for the school-goer, the veteran of the second grade and up, who, despite the comic page cracks about burning down the school house, is glad to renew old acquaintances, get together with the gang and find a lot of fun in school. It is a happy one for those in charge for it means a rewarding task renewed. It is a happy day for those parents glad to turn over the little dears to the care of the school staffs bent on making education a success.

While it is a happy time for many, the day also carries a tinge of sadness. That's when you stop to consider the little boys and girls going to school for the first time. It is an adventure for them, a big one, probably the biggest in their lives to date.

They are going out into the world for the first time. It will be a day of shock, too, for the outside world is much different from their world up to now. It will be a shock to find they are no longer the Big Individual but just one of the crowd.

They will have to readjust to the grim reality that the days of special attention, special care for any injury, soothing comfort for hurt feelings, loving special concern, are at an end.

For them it may be a day of disillusionment as they find the world can be cruel.

But perhaps we shouldn't feel too sad for them now that they are on their own for the first time.

The things they learn today and the way they learn them will be of tremendous help in the days to come.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

It's Those Administration Apologists

WASHINGTON, D. C. —“You say that you keep seeing things,” said Dr. Clarence W. Couchmaster.

“They say the President is doing just right to refer the whole matter to the next meeting of the Organization of American States. The AA's say that this is how to comply with the spirit of the Monroe Doctrine.”

“What else does the AA say about the Administration's handling of the Cuban crisis?”

“The Administration Apologists write in their columns, or say in their speeches, or declare in their press releases, or leak to their commentator friends that the Administration is doing everything it possibly can do about Cuba — but everything, in this instance, means nothing. For example, we really ought to intercept that Soviet shipping, but that might mean shooting—and shooting would mean war and war is unthinkable. Or we really ought to lean heavily upon NATO allies who have leased ships to the Russians for fortifying the Red bastion in the Western Hemisphere. But we don't dare speak roughly to our Allies because where would we be if the Portuguese, the Italians and the Greeks called us Ugly Americans?”

“Some people think we're the only Western Hemisphere power with the military strength to liberate Cuba from the Reds, and that we ought to do so,” ventured Couchmaster. “Is this another duty that you plainly see?”

“It certainly is,” replied the distinguished patient. “But those Administration Apologists fuff this one up too. They write, speak, declare and leak stories to the effect that an American expeditionary force to Cuba would be playing straight into the enemy hands. No sooner would we get several divisions involved in Cuba than Khrushchev would start something in Berlin and . . .”

Always Starting Something

“But,” said Couchmaster, “Khrushchev is always starting some thing in Berlin, and we have yet to move anything but token forces of 1,200 men up and down the Autobahn. We never make any use of our power in Berlin. That's why the Berliners have rioted against us and why even as good a friend as Mayor Willy Brandt has to admit that the West has a do-nothing policy.”

“I know,” said the patient sadly, “but the Administration Apologists contend that the Administration is doing everything possible in Europe. The President is calling another Four Power meeting to talk about the Wall, and that's all he can do—just talk!”

“The State Flower is the poppy, adopted in 1903. I plan to ignore all letters about that's why there are so many dopes here. When Alaska became a state it shoved California into third spot in the nation in size. We had been second.”

But that's mere acreage. It is estimated that by the time the first ice pack graces a throbbing brow on January 1, 1963, we'll be the most populous state. The current rush beats the 1849 trek. And it's easier to get here now.

SO LET Alaska and Texas boast about the most square miles. We got the most people. Note I didn't say square people. There's some debate about how California got its name but the consensus is that it was swiped from a best seller of the 15th century which had California, an imaginary island near Paradise, as its locale. It still looks like Paradise to a lot of people. So endeth today's history lesson.

Happy Birthday, dear Calif., Happy Birthday to you.

Yesterday having been Admission Day and today being the legal observance thereof, I get out of thinking up a so-called rhyme by singing Happy Birthday to California. Since you can't hear me as it's in print, there's no dissonance.

CALIFORNIA, a bit of pleasant research work reveals, got into the Union on September 9, 1850. That was 112 years ago as of yesterday. People don't usually work on Sunday and nobody wants to deprive any eligible person of a chance to goof off for a day, so today's a holiday. In California, anyway.

We didn't become the 31st star in the flag without a fuss. Living in the wide open country, we took a dim view of slavery, the big topic of the times. Southern senators had no use for us but forgot to pull a filibuster and we made it in '50.

CHAP BY THE NAME of James A. Marshall found gold in the American River at John Sutter's sawmill on January 24, 1848. When the word got around in 1849 it started the greatest rush into California up to a few years ago. They're coming faster now. Although Marshall gets the credit for finding gold in the state, some historians claim that a Mexican whose name I forget, found gold attached to the roots of an onion he wanted for his hot sauce, in the San Fernando Valley in 1845.

Leave it to Los Angeles to get into the act.

SPANIARDS and Portuguese with familiar names like Coronado, Cabrillo and Cortez, were the first tourists and started coming here in 1540. The first hotel was in 1769.

Then Marshall hit the jackpot and the miners came in 1849. The others came in 1951 and we were off and running.

California's motto is “Eureka” which means “I have found it.” There's no record that Marshall sloshed through the river, carrying fish, yelling “Eureka.” They had other words for it even then.

THE STATE FLOWER is the poppy, adopted in 1903. I plan to ignore all letters about that's why there are so many dopes here. When Alaska became a state it shoved California into third spot in the nation in size. We had been second.

Dear Abby . . .

DEAR ABBY: I am in love with a guy who thinks more of his job than he does of me. He is an insurance agent who loves his work and is trying to get ahead. After work he comes straight to my house. When he walks in the door he doesn't say “I love you.” He says, “Don't bother me I have work to do.” We never go out any more because he's either too tired or wants to study. He practically ignores me and we aren't even married yet. Should I stick with him?

DEAR IGNORED: Your boyfriend's ambition is impressive, but he's courting a career—not a girl. If you want a go-getter in business and a go-to-sleep at home, he's your agent.

DEAR ABBY: I am allergic to lawyers. I have practically supported lawyers all my life and I am sick of them. Now I want to get a divorce, but I don't want a lawyer getting into the act. I KNOW I either have to pay alimony to my wife or make a flat settlement on her. I am willing to make a deal with HER but I don't want any lawyers cutting themselves a big slice for nothing. Is it possible to get a divorce without a lawyer?

SICK OF LAWYERS

DEAR SICK: Only a lawyer is qualified to advise you in legal matters. Better ask a lawyer if you need to hire one.

DEAR ABBY: A very pretty young woman recently moved to town and I started dating her. I made up my mind that I was going to be a perfect gentleman. I didn't try to kiss her goodnight and I didn't take her parking or anything like that. She soon dropped me. Later I found out that she didn't want to have anything to do with me because she thought something must be “wrong” with me.

MISSED MY CHANCE

DEAR MISSED: You didn't miss much. Something was “wrong” with her. She was probably so conditioned to wolves that she didn't know how to handle a lamb.

Unload your problem on Abby. For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, care of this paper.

Remember When

September 10, 1952

Enrollment in the schools of the Palm Springs Unified School District on the first day totaled 1,293, a gain of 64 over the first day's enrollment in 1951. There were 324 enrolled in the high school and 174 in Nellie Coffman Junior High. Largest elementary school enrollment was that at Frances Stevens, 202 with Cahulita School, 201, a close second. There were eight schools in the district.

Motorists were chunking it into the parking meters again as the summer meter law vacation came to an end. Courtesy citations were issued the first day but Chief A. G. Kettmann said the next time it would cost parking law violators a buck.

September 10, 1942

Dr. Earnest E. Oertel, an educator with 17 years of experience, was named principal of Palm Springs high school. He succeeds Morris Richardson who left to enlist in the U.S. Navy.

Improvement of Highway 111 between Palm Springs and Indio was recommended to the state highway division by the highway committee of the county chamber of commerce meeting in Riverside.

Reports from the courthouse indicated that the city tax rate of $1 per $100 was one of the lowest in the county. Only Banning and Blythe had a smaller levy.

Dr. J. R. Macartney announced resumption of regular services at Palm Springs Community Church.

September 10, 1932

Earle C. Strebe, who has been showing motion pictures here for some time, announced that he will build a new theater here to cost $12,000. It will be at the northwest corner of Lawn and Palm Canyon Drive, the city's main street, across the street from the Desert Inn property.

Angels Lose in 14 Mad Innings to Orioles, 4-3

MINNEAPOLIS-St. PAUL (UPI)—That's a strange, almost bizarre technique the Los Angeles are using to creep in on the first-place New York Yankees. Everytime the Angels lose a doubleheader the Angels only lose one game—and pick up a half-game on the champions.

For the fourth time in a little more than two weeks, New York lost a doubleheader Sunday. And for the fourth time in a little more than two weeks the Angels dropped their single game.

Los Angeles blew a 3-0 lead in the seventh inning and then lost to the Baltimore Orioles, 4-3 in 14 maddening innings on Brooks Robinson's homer. But thanks to the Yanks' twin defeat the Angels struggled up another notch in the standings and were an even 4 games out of first.

That difference was carried in to Minnesota where tonight the Angels open a two-game series with the Twins, who were only 2½ games behind New York, in second place. Dean Chance (12-8) was to pitch for Los Angeles and Dick Stigman (9-4) for Minnesota, in the game scheduled to be telecast in the Southern California area.

For a while Sunday, Los Angeles was optimistic. Ted Bowsfield had a not hitter going into the seventh inning and the Angels—with the help of Leon Wagner's 35th home run—were in front 3-0.

Then with two out in the seventh, the Orioles' Gus Triandos ended the no hitter with a single. Marv Breeding doubled, and when Dick Williams whacked a pinch double two runs scored. Bowsfield was replaced.

Still, the Angels appeared the winners. They led 3-2 in the bottom of the ninth with Charlie Lau on first. Whitey Herzog hit a ground ball to Angel second baseman Billy Moran for what looked like the third out. It became the Angels' second error. Pinch hitter Russ Snyder singled to score Lau and the game went into extra innings.

Robinson's homer came off Julio Navarro, who had taken over in the 10th inning. He now has a 1-1 record. Hoyt Wilhelm retired all 15 Los Angeles batters from the 10th inning on and got the win.

Honeymooners Snag Limits of Scrappy Corvina

Singer Ginny Simms and Attorney Don Eastwood celebrated their return to Palm Springs from an extended honeymoon in Europe and Egypt by fishing 235 feet below sea level over the weekend.

Fishing from their cabin cruiser, the Miss North Shore Beach, they hooked limits of the scrappy fish, the Corvina, near the boat launching area of North Shore Beach Yacht Club.

Their catches, which hit both live mudscraper bait and cast feather jigs, averaged nine pounds.

Miss Simms and Eastwood, Oilman Ray Ryan's partner in the North Shore Beach development, enjoyed a trick they picked up while fishing in the Mediterranean Sea near Cairo. Find an area where flocks of birds are raiding the marine population and silently drift in with bait or lures.

Also, Frank Mason, winner of the McMinn trophy and almost a hundred other trophies for his famous square MG TC.

LARGEST EVER ATTEMPTED

Summer Recreational Program Huge Success

The Recreation and Special Events department officially completed their fourth month city-wide program thru Sept. 6 with the final Fishing Derby at the Palm Springs Golf Course.

The program was the largest ever attempted in the last 12 years according to Howard Haddock, director. The Little League, Minor League and Pee Wee League for boys from 8-12 years old had a record of 2 teams. All these leagues were coordinated by the recreation with the Little League Commission for the 10th straight year. Joseph E. Wood was President for the leagues.

The Desert Softball League, limited to six teams because of the lack of facilities, played an 18 game schedule; 14 exhibition games were played with outside teams; the three top teams played in the Southern California Municipal Softball Championship at Riverside.

First Time
For the first time a teenage Girls Softball League was formed and played all their games at the Rodeo Grounds. The department hopes to enlarge the leagues to eight teams next year.

Eight teams were in the Pony League and Keystone League for boys 13-17 years old. This league was sponsored by different organizations in the city and was under the direction of the Palm Springs Boys' Club, Ray Lockwood, director.

A record of 14 teams played this summer in all types of baseball and softball. Shortage of facilities caused the cancellation of an Adult Baseball League.

A large turnout of boys, girls and adults from 8-80 years of age took advantage of the golf instruction held once a week at the Palm Springs Golf Course. Zell Eaton and Al King, city golf pros, were in charge of the popular program.

Tennis Program
Tennis instructions were held once a week during June and July at Tamarisk Park Courts. David Gilliam, Racquet Club pro, was in charge of the program. The program was held for teenagers and adults.

Duplicate bridge club was in session once a week for the first time all summer at the Pavilion. Beginners and intermediate bridge classes were held in June and July at the Pavilion twice a week.

Adult square dances were held once a week all summer for the first time at the Pavilion. A Junior Square Dance program was also held once a week. Osa Mathews was again in charge of all the square dance program.

Volleyball was played once a week during the summer at the high school gym.

Another new program started this year was an elementary and high school bowling program held once a week at the Palm Springs Lanes.

Baton and Majorette classes for girls 6-15 years old and Tap and Ballet classes for girls 6-15 years old were held once a week and were a tremendous success.

A major program for boys and girls from 8-16 years old was the summer music and band program held at the Nellie Coffman Junior High School five days a week for seven weeks. Ninety-two students registered for this program. Kenneth Lesight, music instructor for the junior high school, was in charge of the program.

Charm Classes
Modeling and Charm classes for teenage girls from 13-18 years old ran for seven weeks at the Pavilion. An average of 5 girls attended the once a week session. Barbara Foster, outstanding instructor, was in charge of the class.

The two biggest programs of the summer outside of the baseball was the Arts and Crafts school and the swimming program at the high school pool. The Arts and Crafts school held four days a week at the Viola Vista school with 10 instructors for nine weeks. A total attendance for the program was 3,238 boys and girls for an average daily attendance of 101—a record for this program.

The Palm Springs High School swimming pool had a total attendance of 5,492 for 10 weeks, a record average daily attendance of 109. Five different sessions of beginners swimming classes were held during the summer. Junior life saving classes were held for the teenagers and adult lessons were held all during the summer.

Verne Howeth was the pool manager for the 10th straight year. Marge Hammerslag was assistant manager for the fourth straight year.

Special Events
The largest number of special events ever held was sponsored during the summer.
—1. Four special trips were made to Camp Pendleton Marine Base for boys 15-16-17 years old. This major program was for 10 days each and completely free to all boys. It was called the "Devil Pup Program" and it was one of the finest programs held during the summer months. The Marine Corp Reserve sponsored the program and the Recreation and Spe-

Nicklaus Masters Both 'Monsters' For 50 G's

AKRON, Ohio (UPI) — Jack Nicklaus, only 22, was right up there at the top today but even more important to him was the fact that he finally knows he "belongs."

He knocked off the other major champions — Arnold Palmer and Gary Player — for the $50,000 first place money in the first "world series" of golf Sunday and that convinced him.

"I've been doing well," Nicklaus observed with a smile. "But I wondered even after I won the U.S. Open whether I belonged up there with the 'king' — that's Palmer — and all the rest."

He does.

When he came from behind to beat Palmer and Player by four strokes in the television spectacular, which matched the winners of the four major golf events, it left little doubt that there is a new golf champion in the making.

Feels Confident

Nicklaus had that feeling, too. "I'm not interested in one grand slam, I'd like to have at least two," he smiled when asked whether he had the same ambition as Palmer — to win all the four big ones in the same year. That would be the Masters and British Open, which Palmer won this year, the PGA which Player won, and the Open, which Nicklaus took in a playoff with Palmer.

So when he fired a one-under-36 over the Firestone Country Club course Sunday, it was the second time that, head to head, he had beaten the man he calls the greatest golfer of our times—Palmer.

Palmer led Nicklaus by one stroke and Player by four going into Sunday's final 18 holes of play.

Palmer had fired a five-under-par 65 on the first round, scrambling all the way to do it. So it looked like "Mr. Moneybags" was going to pick up another fifty grand.

Loses Putting Touch

But Sunday his putter let him down. On his opening round 65, he had 11 putts on the first nine holes. Sunday he had 19.

"That's why I got beat," said Palmer.

Palmer's game Sunday was just the opposite of his Saturday round. On Saturday he had birdies on the first three holes and on the eighth, Sunday he bogeyed all four, three of them with three-putts.

Nicklaus won it with three birdies on the back nine.

He went out in 37, two over par over the 7,165-yard Firestone course, but came home in 32 for a one-under-par 69 and a total of 135. Palmer, noted for this stretch charges, chopped up the course with a four-over-par 39-35-74. That left him in a tie with Player who had an even par 35-35-70. They each won $12,500, splitting the second-place and third-place money of $15,000 and $10,000.

DODGERS NEXT FOE

Big 'Blow' Boys From Windy City

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—There was little cause for undue optimism in the camp of the Los Angeles Dodgers today after the club ran up a two-game "winning streak" against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

But if the Dodgers had any idea they might enjoy an easier time against the Chicago Cubs who invade Chavez Ravine tonight, manager Walt Alston was right there with a warning that the Windy City club could be tough despite its record.

"I hope our men realize they can't just throw their gloves on the field and beat the Cubs," Alston said. "They have some excellent men like Ernie Banks, George Altman, Ken Hubbs and the others who would like nothing better than beating us."

Drysdale to Start

But the Dodgers will have their top pitcher, Don Drysdale, 23-7, starting against the Cubs. Opposing him will be Dick Ellsworth, 8-17, who was termed a better pitcher by the Dodgers than his record might indicate.

Drysdale did not oppose the Pittsburgh Pirates. With the Dodgers down to four starters, he is taking a regular rotation of working every fourth day and he appeared in the final game against the San Francisco Giants.

Although the Dodgers took their final two games from the Pirates, they gained no ground in their half-game lead over the hot Giants who defeated the Cubs at the same time.

Alston, who Friday had termed his team's 10-1 loss to the Pirates the worst exhibition he had ever seen by a Dodger team, relaxed slightly and expressed his pleasure with the two wins.

"Pittsburgh is a good team that doesn't beat itself. You have to beat the Pirates by outthinking and outplaying them."

Alston shook up his lineup Saturday and the bench warmers responded with good performances to aid in the two victories. So he had catcher Doug Camilli and third baseman Andy Carey back in the game Sunday.

Camilli came through with consecutive doubles while Carey got a hit in two times at bat.

"The Way Camilli is hitting, I think he'll be back of the plate again tonight," Alston said.

Wills Now at 86.

Maury Wills with three singles, three stolen bases to increase his league record to 86, and two runs scored was the feature of Sunday's 5-3 victory.

But he shared the limelight with Frank Howard who hit his 26th homer, the most any Dodger has hit since the club came to Los Angeles. And the four-bagger went between the two flagpoles in Centerfield, the third time the feat has been performed in the new stadium.

Wally Post of the Cincinnati Reds and Elston Howard of the New York Yankees against the Los Angeles Angels were the other men to hit the ball there. The fence in direct centerfield is 10 feet from the plate and Howard's ball went about 50 feet more.

Johnny Podres recorded his 13th win although he was lifted in the eighth when the Pirates scored their three runs. Bob Friend took the loss.
